INVESTIGATION REPORT

MEAT SHOPS CHENNAI

Stop Illegal Slaughter is a nationwide movement to address illegal killing of animals for food.

FIAPO
Federation of Indian Animal Protection Organisations
Network. Advocate. Love.
www.fiapo.org

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief medical health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	1

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Suguna chicken shop
Area	Teynampet
Address of the premises	Suguna chicken shop, Teynampet, Chennai

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Teynampet area of Chennai city and found that Suguna chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief medical health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Chennai Municipal Corporation
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	2

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Shabi mutton and chicken stall
Area	Pallavakkam
Address of the premises	Mani Ammai Street, Pallavakkam, Chennai

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Pallavakkam area of Chennai city and found that Shabi mutton & chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical & Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Chennai Municipal Corporation
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	3

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Bismi protein wholesale shop
Area	Dasaradhapuram
Address of the premises	Dasaradhapuram, Chennai

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Dasaradhapuram area of Chennai city and found that Bismi protein wholesale shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical & Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Chennai Municipal Corporation
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	4

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Thirunaavukarasu beef selling shop
Area	Thirikaalimed
Address of the premises	Thirikaalimed, Kanchipuram

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Thirikaalimed area of Chennai city and found that Thirunaavukarasu beef selling shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief and Medical Officer
Concerned Department Name	Chennai Municipal Corporation
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	5

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Samsu beef selling shop
Area	VR Puram
Address of the premises	Samsu beef selling shop, VR Puram, Saligramam, Chennai - 93

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9—2017 was visiting VR Puram area of Chennai city and found that Samsu beef selling shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop is not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief and Medical Officer
Concerned Department Name	Chennai Municipal Corporation
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	6

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Akbar mutton & Chicken shop
Area	Anna Nagar
Address of the premises	Paadi Pudur Nagar, Anna Nagar, Chennai – 40

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Anna nagar area of Chennai city and found that Akbar mutton $ Chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. (Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief and Medical Officer
Concerned Department Name	Chennai Municipal Corporation
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	7

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Masha Allah mutton & Chicken shop
Area	OMR
Address of the premises	Rajiv Gandhi Street, OMR, Egattur, Chennai – 103

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting OMR area of Chennai city and found that Masha Allah mutton & Chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	8

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Rafi chicken store
Area	Choolaimedu
Address of the premises	Chennai -95

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Choolaimedu area of Chennai city and found tha Rafi chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	9

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Best chicken store
Area	Triplicane
Address of the premises	Chennai -95

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Triplicane area of Chennai city and found that Best chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	10

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Anburaj chicken mutton stall
Area	Mandaveli
Address of the premises	Chennai -28

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Mandaveli area of Chennai city and found tha Anburaj chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	11

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Allathiya chicken mutton shop
Area	West Saidapet
Address of the premises	Chennai -13

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting West Saidapet area of Chennai city and found tha Allathiya chicken mutton shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	12

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Mathina chicken mutton shop
Area	Muttukkaranchavadi
Address of the premises	Thoraipakkam, Chennai-97

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Muttukkaranchavadi area of Chennai city and found tha Mathina chicken mutton shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	13

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	M.Azeez chicken shop
Area	Kosapet
Address of the premises	Porasaiwakkam, Chennai-41

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Porasaiwakkam area of Chennai city and found tha M.Azeez chicken mutton shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	14

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Shake mutton & chicken shop
Area	Valmiki Nagar
Address of the premises	Kottivakkam, Chennai-41

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Valmiki nagar area of Chennai city and found tha Shake mutton & chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	15

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	RK my chicken shop
Area	Porur
Address of the premises	Chennai

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Porur area of Chennai city and found tha RK my chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	16

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Ajmar mutton chicken stall
Area	Jafarkhanpe
Address of the premises	Chennai

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Jafarkhanpe area of Chennai city and found tha Ajmar mutton chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	17

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Seenu chicken mutton shop
Area	Pondy bazaar
Address of the premises	T-Nagar, Chennaai-17

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Pondy Nagar area of Chennai city and found tha Seenu mutton chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	18

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	Limra chicken mutton shop
Area	49/5, Valachery Check Post, SMU Street,NSK Road,
Address of the premises	Tamil Nadu Housing Board Colony, Velachery, Chennai-42

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Velachey area of Chennai city and found tha Limra mutton chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

Complaint against Illegal meat Shop

Name of Authority to whom complaint is filed	Chief Medical and Health Officer
Concerned Department Name	Food Safety
Date of Complainant	11-09-2017
Place	Chennai

Name of the Organization	FIAPO
Address	Chennai
Mobile No. /Contact No.	9629780758
E-mail ID	monica.sure669@gmail.com
Complaint Number	19

Complaint given against

Name of the premises	AR Frahana chicken shop
Area	Bismillah Nagar
Address of the premises	Vettuvankeni, Chennai-49

Description of complaint

I Monica on 11—9-2017 was visiting Vettuvankeni area of Chennai city and found tha AR Frahana chicken shop are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table, which amount to a violation of laws governing meat shops respectively. I hereby request you to take strict action against these illegal activities of the premises as per rules and regulations.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not having license from Food Safety Department	Section 63. .(Food Safety and Standards Act 2006) Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house" Violation of section 269 of Rajasthan Municipal Act 2009 which lays down that no place shall be used as a Slaughterhouse or for any other purpose which would include a shop for the sale animals intended for human food, or of meat without an express license from the Municipal Authorities
There is no certification on the health of the birds and whether their meat is fit for consumption	Violation of Section 4 (1) to (8) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001 which states "the veterinary doctor after examining the animal shall issue a fitness certificate for each animal" Possible offense under Section 59. Punishment for unsafe food It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures for sale or stores or sells or distributes or imports any article of food for human consumption which is unsafe, shall be punishable.
Chickens are handled in the most inhuman way during slaughter. On one instance, it was observed that a chicken was skinned alive without even allowing enough time for the bird to die	Violation of BIS standards for slaughterhouse licensing which mandates humane slaughter and a resting place for animals before slaughter
Slaughtered carcasses and meat were displayed on counters outside the shops and were exposed to dirt and germs	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" and "Care should be taken that no direct sunlight falls on the dressed carcasses" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Date:- 11-September-2017
Sign of Complainant: - Monica

INVESTIGATION REPORT

MEAT SHOPS CHENNAI

FIAPO
Federation of Indian Animal Protection Organisations
Network. Advocate. Love.
www.fiapo.org

A-64 2nd floor, East of Kailash, New Delhi, 110065 | mail@fiapo.org