Description of complaint

I, Urvashi Saini, on 20-09-2017, was visiting Dehradun city and found that most of the meat shop premises are not following rules and regulations of applicable to their meat shop for which details are given in below table. These amount to violation of laws governing meat shops respectively as detailed here. I hereby request you to take strict action against the same.

Nature of Observations	Violation as per Laws
Shop does not have license from Food Safety Department	This is a violation of Section 63 of Food safety and Standards Act 2006- Punishment for carrying out a business without license- If any person or food business operator (except the persons exempted from licensing under sub-section (2) of section 31 of this Act), himself or by any person on his behalf who is required to obtain license, manufacturers, sells, stores or distributes or imports any article of food without license, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with a fine which may extend to five lakh rupees.
Shop is located in city and adjacent to food shops/markets	Violation of BIS rules which states "All meat stalls can only be set up in designated places, as a unit of a meat market and shall be located at a place away from vegetable or other food markets"
People operating these shops were unhygienic and no care was taken when handling the meat	Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food which may extend to one lakh rupees
Sale of meat takes place in the most unhygienic conditions, where it is exposed to insects, smoke and dust from the roads	Violation of BIS rules which states that "the meat shall be free from undesirable odor, smoke, dust or other contaminants" Punishable offence under Section 56 of Food Safety and Standards Act 2006- Penalty for unhygienic or unsanitary processing or manufacturing of food. It states that any person who, whether by himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufactures or processes any article of food for human consumption under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.
Animals beings slaughtered in sigh of other animal	As per the slaughter house law, sec 6 sub sec(1) No animal shall be slaughtered in the sight of other animal.
Chicken and goats are slaughtered freely in these units despite them not being certified slaughterhouses	Clear violation of section 3(1) of Slaughterhouse Rules 2001, which states that "animals cannot be slaughtered except in a recognized and licensed slaughter house"
